Tilepile is for artists who want to create their own massive tile walls in Photoshop. It is an Adobe Photoshop plug-in that allows you to create horizontal and vertical tile murals of custom designed murals. Tilepile Tutorial: Create a Massive Tile mural in Photoshop - 5:46 THE STUFF PEOPLE MADE IN HAPPY HOUR THE STUFF PEOPLE MADE IN HAPPY HOUR THE STUFF PEOPLE MADE IN HAPPY HOUR In the seventies, people were able to make all the things that are considered collector's items today. From the Shillelagh Piano and the Meat Catcher's Hat to the Old Faithful teapots and the HoagyCardboard VCR's, many of us used to make almost anything we wanted to and watch them being made from the comfort of our sofas, and then put them in our collections. So how easy was that? No-one told us that we'd need to make a website for our collections and designs. There are some stuff that I've made, and in this episode I'm giving you my tips on how to create a website for yourself, so you can share your creations with other people. If you have any questions, please ask in the comments, I'd love to help you out: -What software should I use? -Should I hand type my designs or convert them into vector? -Which services should I pay for? -How much should I charge for my work? -How should my website look? -Where do I get the funding to create my amazing projects? -What is a portfolio? Should I make a portfolio site for myself? -How can I share my work with other people?  HAPPY HOUR  Ever wondered how I create my amazing work? I make videos on my process and workflow in Adobe Photoshop, among other things. I call it Happy Hour! I call my videos HappyHour because that's what you get - friends, support, advice, and an insight to what I do. I'd love for you to subscribe to my channel to always have happy hour in your pocket, at your fingertips
