Recent changes:- General bug fixes. - Some device specific enhancements. - Thanks to the community for their feedback, suggestions and helpful bug reports.At least 50,000 people have fled their homes as heavy monsoon rains continue to batter India and several other regions across the country. Forty-five patients, mostly children, were treated in hospital after they were rescued from flood-hit homes in the Indian capital, New Delhi, on Sunday. Among them was nine-year-old Kaveya, who was pulled out by her neighbours in the national capital, where the lowest rainfall has been recorded in a century. Floods in Delhi and neighbouring Uttar Pradesh state last week left more than a dozen people dead and forced hundreds of thousands of residents to flee their homes. But Sunday's rains were heavier than previous storms, adding to the misery of those left stranded. "My house has been damaged. It was already very old and I couldn't do much," said Subodh Kumar, who took shelter with his family in a school in the north Indian city of Kanpur. "I saw my
