Christelijke Vereniging Koninklijke Vrijheid The Christelijke Vereniging Koninklijke Vrijheid (Christian Society the Kingdom of Freedom) was a Dutch Calvinist and Reformed religious and political organization that existed from 1863 to 1912. It was a conservative, populist and nationalistic religious and political movement. Its members included prominent politicians such as Eduard van der Noot and Jacob van Maanen, but not the radical, antidemocratic Daniel Overbeek, who founded his own political party, later the National Socialist Movement.
