Police officers from the National Crime Agency (NCA) carried out a series of dawn raids on 18 properties across the Midlands as part of an on-going investigation into the supply and distribution of Class A drugs. A number of arrests were made during the raids, which took place in Birmingham, Nottingham, Dudley and Walsall. The NCA said the investigation concerned a convicted drug dealer, believed to be one of the "most prolific" distributors of Class A drugs in the country. In total, 41.5kg of cannabis, 23g of cocaine, a quantity of ketamine, and one kilogram of ecstasy were seized. Det Insp Stuart Waller, from the NCA, said: "Today's raids will help disrupt a well established and prolific drug ring operating across the Midlands. "The drugs seizure will place money back into the pockets of local people and help support those affected by the use of Class A substances. "What is also significant, as well as the seizure of drugs, is that this raid will also result in the seizure of a rare gold watch set with gemstones worth over £1m." Among the arrests is a 38-year-old woman, from Leicester, who was found in possession of a class A substance in a public place. A 38-year-old man, from Walsall, was arrested on suspicion of using two aliases. The man was also found in possession of Class A drugs after an address was raided in Beaumaris Drive, Dudley.
