Keymacro is a Windows program that allows users to use or create macros for the operation of computers. A "macro" is a series of keyboard or mouse actions that can be performed automatically. In this article we will show you what a macro is and how to make your own macros. How to make a macro: 1. First, you need to define which mouse button you want to use for making the macro. 2. Second, you have to determine the action you want to perform. 3. Then you need to define the exact sequence of keyboard strokes or mouse actions that will lead to this action. 4. Finally, you need to assign a shortcut key to your macro. 5. When the mouse or keyboard is pressed, the macro will be executed. 6. A macro can repeat up to 100 times. 5. Here is a description of each one of the actions you can choose from: You can choose from a few actions that the macro can do. - Recording the mouse This action will record the position of the mouse on the computer screen. In this way, you can create a series of macros for that mouse action. To activate this option, you need to go to the Options menu, and then, choose the mouse action to which you want to assign the macro. - Recording the keyboard This action will record the position of the keyboard on the computer screen. In this way, you can create a series of macros for that keyboard action. To activate this option, you need to go to the Options menu, and then, choose the keyboard action to which you want to assign the macro. - Changing the cursor position This action will move the cursor on the computer screen to the position where you want to start recording. To activate this action, you need to go to the Options menu, and then, choose the mouse or keyboard action to which you want to assign the macro. - Resetting the mouse This action will reset the mouse to its original position. To activate this action, you need to go to the Options menu, and then, choose the mouse action to which you want to assign the macro. - Selecting the area of the screen This action will let you select a rectangular area of the screen where you want to record the mouse or keyboard action. To activate this action, you need to go to the Options menu, and then, choose the mouse or keyboard action to which you want

Get iTunes on iOS, Android, Mac, and Windows. Featuring the best of video, photos, music, podcasts, and more. Free Apps & Games.]]> 01 March 2014 11:01:00 +0000CIMSOFT 'First Call' – Basic Version Available for Free CIMSOFT has launched its latest release – First Call, which lets users create PowerPoint templates. These templates can be saved to or copied to the memory stick. Users can browse through the templates, edit, or even rearrange the templates. Thanks to First Call, users don't need to create their own PowerPoint presentations anymore, and can just pick and choose from a variety of ready-to-use templates. Having said that, people have an option to create custom templates if they find the number of templates provided by the software quite limited. As with other CIMSOFT products, First Call has several basic tools. To start with, users will be able to import files, PDFs, or PowerPoint presentations from various sources, including online sources like Facebook. It also has several buttons for modifying images, enhancing their color or arranging them. Other tools include drawing and text tools, which let users create charts and diagrams, as well as creating tables. The ability to manipulate images through the software is particularly useful for people who create their presentations based on various sources. As mentioned, First Call allows users to edit or rearrange templates provided by the software. They can simply add, delete or move around templates. It is even possible to delete entire templates at a time. Once finished with the changes, users can save their new templates. CIMSOFT also provides an option to export the created PowerPoint presentation to PDF format. The PDF file can be opened in other applications, or uploaded to sites like SlideShare, Dropbox, Evernote, etc. for sharing. The price of First Call is only $14.99 (approx. £10.00). It is available on Windows 7 and 8 computers.]]>
