Vivekachudamani By Swami Chinmayananda Audiobook Download I am more than ever before certain that this divine law is the only highway that leads to the realisation of human freedom and joy. My purpose here is to try to show that the divine law is so powerful, so wonderful, so all-inclusive, so complete, that it can satisfy a mind endowed with all the higher powers of discrimination and learning.

You will find that the philosophy of discrimination and comprehension is really the highest part of human wisdom . You know that everything is one. Then you are making yourself happy by making the world one thing, and you are satisfying your own craving, your own wish, your own selfishness. All these things are one, and if you can realise this, you will be free. If you can learn to discriminate properly you will find that all kinds of understanding of the world are there - It is perfectly logical, and you are satisfied with it. So this is a great and unique book of Advaita Vedanta. It is a great book, and it deserves to be studied by every person that has the slightest bit of mental enlightenment . Swami Chinmayananda. The book is the most important book that has ever been written. What a commentary of it, what an exposition of it! What a commentary of that commentary, what a commentary! There will be not one point in this book which is not correct. This book shows us the way to God, so that we, through understanding, can realise Him. Only a man who understands his own nature can understand all that is said in this book. The Bauddha says that God is formless, the Chandogya Upanishad says that He is formless, but the Bauddha and the Chandogya say this. But I say that the source of all form is in the Divine Consciousness, the Divine Mind. The One Life is the expression of the Divine Consciousness. The universal Self is the expression of the Divine Consciousness. That which is all-pervasive and which has no limits, the One Life or the universal Self or the Divine Consciousness - I call it the Divine Consciousness or the Divine Mind or the Divine Reality. The Divine Consciousness is one with the Divine Will, the Divine Mind is one with the Divine Intelligence. This Divine Consciousness or the Divine Mind is the only Reality
