
Yes, I am FoxPro I have quite a few FoxPro databases; it's an important tool in my business. I need to do some maintenance but I can't open my database because I need the key (I did have a password but I remember that I deleted it). How can I get the key? This is a multi database V-shape - there are several other databases as well. I need the key so that I can open and work with all the databases. SQL server administration As a SQL Server administrator I find this an extremely useful add on. It is easy to use and the results are well produced. Great value for money Well worth the money. Better than I thought it would be. Great value for money. Factory Problem, Product Has Serious Defect My product has a serious problem, I want to replace it. Why doesn't anyone know how to solve this problem? I have a subscription for Smart Home Pro and the support people can't be bothered to help me. Other subscribers say they have the same problem but no one is able to fix it for them. Why should I purchase Smart Home Pro again? It has a code issue that is causing my products to have a serious problem and no one knows how to solve it. Registry Cleaner-- A very good Registry Cleaner. Very efficient and simple. It is a window program and easy to use and I found it works very well. One that I would recommend without hesitation. Made me realize how dirty my Registry is.
